

Vertical Concerts Make a Comeback this Spring at Royal Park Hotel
Hotel celebrates live local music with socially distanced, outdoor vertical concerts back again by popular demand

(March 29, 2021 -Rochester, MI-) Back by popular demand is Michigan’s only Vertical Concert Series! In partnership with Maker’s Mark, Royal Park Hotel is set to kick off its spring series April 29 with a performance by returning favorite Your Generation In Concert.

The hotel held a similar concert series last August in response to the COVID – 19 pandemic, finding safe ways to create experiences for their guests while following all MDHHS guidelines, including social distancing and mask-wearing. Attendees experienced two hours of live musical performances from one of two locations; the PARK 600 restaurant terrace or their private hotel room terrace, while enjoying locally crafted cuisine and custom cocktails.

“Live music is one of the joys of the spring and summer months, so we’re excited to bring this nine-show Vertical Concert series to downtown Rochester this spring,” said Sue Keels, Royal Park Hotel general manager. “Enjoying a live show with family and friends is one of those things you can’t do virtually and we’ve found a way to be COVID-19 safe and still enjoyable and memorable.”

There will be nine total concerts running into the fall, with two ticketing options for attendees. Tickets sold out quickly for last year’s performances, so guests are encouraged to make their plans early!
